The crucifixion has begun.
The crosses are up and the poor souls on them
are hanging from them
by their arms and their feet.

The carpenter is an unusual man. He has been praying for forgiveness on the people who are crucifying him.

There are signs over the men being crucified - the one over the carpenter says that he is the king of the Jews.

That sign is a slap in the face for political Judaism.
The carpenter must have fallen foul of politics.

I've finally arrived at the cross with Peter. There are three crosses; Jesus is on the one in the middle. There are robbers on the others.

I've just heard that Jesus
is going to be crucified immediately. I'm off to Golgotha to see whether it's true.

We've arrived at Golgotha.
Jesus is on the cross.
I wish we hadn't brought his mother, but she wouldn't stay behind.

The soldiers are squatting
at the foot of the cross,
playing dice for the
clothes of Jesus.

Jesus has seen Mary.
He couldn't say much,
but he asked John to look after her.

I'm to look after Mary, Jesus' mother. I'm taking her back to the family house now. She'll be OK there with Salome.

crucified. I must go and

Here I am at Golgotha.
There are three crucifixions;
the one in the middle is Jesus. This is dreadful,
but there's nothing I can do.

The crowd is very hostile
- they are ignoring the robbers and are shouting insults at Jesus.

Abuse is coming from the priests and the authorities as much as from the crowd, although everyone seems to be taking up the shouts.

One of the robbers has started to speak up for esus - he is asking him to remember the robber when Jesus rules in the Kingdom of God.

Jesus has told the robber that he is being
remembered today,
not just when Jesus
comes into his kingdom.

Everything has gone
quiet. The taunts have come to an end for the moment and the people
being crucified are quiet.
I'm going for a walk.

Joanna is here as well.
There's quite a group of
us women at the cross.
We can't go until it's all over; it's going to be a rotten day.
