In spite of the puzzle
about Jesus of Nazareth and his tomb, I must go with my friend to Emmaus today. Back tomorrow or the day after.

Here goes - nine of the disciples are here, and some of the ladies who came with me to the tomb.
Now I have to tell them
I've seen Jesus.

Mary Magdalene has just been telling us a fantastic story. She says she has been speaking to Jesus. Is she suffering from her old trouble?

They don't believe me.
They're treating me with tolerance, even concern, but they seem to think I'm going mad.

We've made a slow journey today. Thinking about what has been happening over the Passover has slowed us down.

The disciples are still upstairs. I had a look a moment ago - they are discussing some news brought by some women to them.

We've met someone on the road. Even though he must have been staying in Jerusalem he doesn't know what happened over the weekend.

Arrived at Emmaus.
We're discussing Bible passages about the Messiah. The chap we met certainly knows his Old Testament.

They still don't believe me, but I'm staying here a bit longer. Perhaps I'll get another chance later.

It's time for something to eat. Now we have some food we can have a late lunch together.

That was Jesus! We recognised him in the end! It was Jesus!
We need to go back to Jerusalem and tell the others what happened.

Back to Jerusalem.

I know where everyone is - back in the Upper Room. This news is amazing and we need to tell everyone quickly.

We've just met Jesus.
He's alive! He told us to go and tell his brothers who were down for the Passover, but they're to go back to Galilee.
